17th March 1959]

Serial number and name of the unit.

6 Katpadi Timber Works, Katpadi.

7 St. Joseph's Industrial School at Coimbatore and Ootacamund.

8 Other carpentry units attached to the different blocks.

The price of standard bee-hives of 8 frames with 2 supers, ranges from Rs. 16 to Rs 21 per hive according to the quality of timber used—Teakwood, Red sedar wood, Venteak and Pillai Marudu.

III

Programme for the development of Bee-keeping Industry in the State.

1 The distribution of bee-hives in block areas under subsidised rates.

2 The establishment of three bee nurseries at (a) Pattaraikaudu, (b) Hogenaikal and (c) Masinagudi during the current year and three more nurseries in the subsequent years.

3 The establishment of one bee nursery for the Madras City to be located in the Raj Bhavan, Guindy.

4 Formation of Bee-Keepers' Co-operative Societies in block areas and giving them financial assistance by way of technical assistance and loan facilities.

5 Investigations on the possibilities of establishing forest apiaries for large scale production.

6 Distribution of bee-hives and equipments to hill tribes and other Backward Classes free of cost to encourage Bee-keeping among them.

APPENDIX II.

[Vide answer to starred question No. 852 asked by Sri V. K. Kothandaraman at the meeting of the Legislative Assembly held no 17th March 1959, page 469 supra.]

Year.	Number of appointments made each year to posts of District Educational Officers.	Of those in column (2) number of District Educational Officers recruited direct.	Of those in column (2) number of District Educational Officers recruited from among B.T. Assistants in the Madras Educational Subordinate Service.
(1)	(2)	(3)	(4)
1952	1	..	1
1953	16	13	3
1954	5	3	2
1955	3	..	3
1956	2	..	2
1957	11	..	11
1958	1	..	1